

DUMPING IN THE COMMON AREA

Discarding debris behind common area walls could divert or dam the normal flow of water and a monsoon rain could easily begin to erode a hillside causing a sizeable repair bill.

Dumping is a violation (refer to Section 3.6 C of the Owners Handbook). This continued behavior by a few Owners or their hired Contractors will eventually cause everyone's dues to increase. If you see activity of this nature please notify us.