The Corporation may be dissolved only in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration and in accordance with Arizona law. Any dissolution shall be approved in writing by the holders of not less than seventy-five (75%) percent of the total votes of Members entitled to vote and, upon dissolution, other than incident to a merger or consolidation, the assets shall be dedicated to an appropriate public agency to be used for purposes similar to those for which this Corporation was created. In the event that such dedication is refused acceptance, the assets shall be granted, conveyed and assigned to any nonprofit corporation, association, trust, or other organization to be devoted to such similar purposes.

ARTICLE XII LIMITATION OF DIRECTORS' LIABILITY

The personal liability of the directors to the Corporation or its Members for monetary damage for breach of fiduciary duty is eliminated to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law. Neither this provision nor any other provision in these Articles shall eliminate or limit the liability of a director for any of the following:

- a. Any breach of any such person's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its Members.
- b. Acts or omissions which are not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law.
- c. A violation of A.R.S. §10-1026 (issuance of shares of stock and distribution of income or profit to Members, directors or officers prohibited).
- d. Any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.
- e. A violation of A.R.S. §10-1097 (director conflicts of interest).

For purposes of this provision, "director" shall include trustees or persons who serve on a board of council of the Corporation in any advisory capacity.

ARTICLE XIII INDEMNIFICATION

Pursuant to A.R.S. §10-1017.D, any person who serves as a director or who serves on a board or council in an advisory capacity to the Corporation or board of directors of the Corporation shall be immune from civil liability and shall not be subject to suit directly or by way of contribution for any act or omission resulting in damage or injury if such person was acting in good faith or within the scope of his official capacity, unless such damage or injury was caused by willful and wanton or grossly negligent conduct of such person, providing that such limitation of liability does not modify the duties or liabilities of a director or persons serving in an advisory capacity to the Corporation or the Corporation's Members.

Every officer or director of the Corporation may be indemnified by the Corporation against all expenses, liabilities, and penalties, including counsel fees, reasonably incurred by or imposed upon him in connection with any proceeding to which he may be made a party or in which he may become involved by reason of any acts or omissions alleged to have been committed by him or acts within the scope of his employment as a director or officer of Corporation, including any settlement thereof, provided that the board of directors determines that such person acted in good faith and did not act, fail to act, or refuse to act willfully with gross negligence, with fraudulent or criminal intent in regard to the matter involved in the action or proceeding.

The Corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity or arising out of his status as such whether or not the Corporation would have had the power to indemnify him against such liability under this Article.

The right of indemnification herein above provided shall not be exclusive of any rights to which any director or officer of the Corporation may otherwise be entitled by law.

ARTICLE XIV AMENDMENT

The Articles may be amended by an affirmative vote of a least three-fourths (3/4) of the total votes of the membership entitled to vote, voting in person or by proxy, but no amendment may conflict with the Declaration or affect any reserved rights of the Declarant and amendments shall first be proposed by the Board of Directors to the extent required by law. Amendment of the Corporation Bylaws may be made by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, subject to amendment or repeal by a vote of not less than three-fourths (3/4) of the total votes of the membership entitled to vote, voting in person or by proxy.

ARTICLE XV CONFLICTS

In the case of any conflict between the terms hereof and the Declaration, the Declaration shall always control, and in the case of conflict with the Bylaws, these Articles of Incorporation shall control.
